

Fred Hunt, the well known Goodland carpenter and contractor was married at Denver on May 1st, to Miss Lydia Seaman also of Goodland. They left Tuesday of last week without notifying their relatives of their matrimonial intentions and returned Tuesday evening on No. 10. They will occupy the handsome dwelling of Mrs. Mary Ennis, a sister of Mrs Hunt. Their many friends were very much surprised to hear of the marriage and wish them all the joys and comforts of life.
